Travel Team Testimonials

Burning River can be many things to different players. If you have no intention of playing in college but just want to improve your skills, knowledge and ability to compete then Burning River is a great choice.

However, if you want to play at the next level then Woody Calleri and his staff will help you achieve that goal. He will provide an honest assessment of your abilities and discuss what types of schools and programs might fit best. As the process progresses he will make phone calls, send emails, help arrange visits and do whatever is required to make your son realize his dream.

His experience and familiarity with the recruiting process proved invaluable when my son made his final choice. Without hesitation I highly recommend Burning River.

Sincerely,

Tim Mackin
